WALALA VINEYARD

Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir

---

Our Estate Walala Vineyard is a few miles inland from the Pacific Ocean and sits at 1,600 feet - just above the fog layer of Gualala. This is the perfect climate for the Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir that we love so much. We use these unique conditions and elevation to our advantage. This isolated site receives short, consistent sun exposure every afternoon, after long, cold mornings. This cycle manifests into dark, robust fruit that exudes vitality. The 2017 is a savory wine that displays a full, lush body with hints of dark chocolate and cardamom. Complex and powerful, our Walala is always one to remember.

We believe in stewardship of the land, the vineyards, and the people. We are for real connections, real history, real wines; experiences you will never forget. We welcome you to our home, the Adobe, for a historic tasting in Sonoma.
